

A Tale of Two Whistleblowers

Join us as S.T.O.P. - Safe Tables Our Priority
presents a call-in teleseminar
on USDA inspection
gone wrong.

Wednesday, May 26th
8:30-9:30 p.m. eastern
866-866-2244, pin 1483455

R.S.V.P. by May 24th
mail@safetables.org or call 847-831-3032

Our two whistleblowers
will discuss shocking
conditions that lead to unsafe meat and poultry.

whis·tle·blow·er [hwis-uhl-bloh-er, wis-] one who reports wrongdoing in a workplace or organization to authorities, the news media, etc.

S.T.O.P. - Safe Tables Our Priority
3149 Dundee Road #276
Northbrook, IL 60062
www.safetables.org

Our panel will include:

S.T.O.P. members sickened by USDA-regulated products

Dr. Dean Wyatt, a whistleblowing USDA veterinarian from Vermont

David Cantrell, who blew the whistle on a fake USDA veterinarian operating in Georgia

Tom Devine, JD, Legal Director at Government Accountability Project (GAP), who will discuss the importance of whistleblowers to food safety in the United States

Due to the large volume of expected callers, we request that you submit your questions ahead of time by 05/20/2010 to mail@safetables.org or by calling 847-831-3032.

